Nurturing Nurses

Match these words to their meaning.

Crimean War	an act against your country (helping the enemy)
treason	name given to Britain, France and Russia during the First World War
Allies	fighting between Russia on one side and Britain, France, Turkey and Sardinia on the other

Write true or false.

Florence Nightingale is famous for changing the way hospitals were run. _____

Florence Nightingale was born in Italy. _____

Florence Nightingale nursed soldiers in the First World War. _____

Florence Nightingale was known as 'The Lady with the Lamp'. _____

Match the people to their picture.

Florence Nightingale

Mary Seacole

Edith Cavell

Match the war to the correct dates.

First World War	1853-1856
Crimean War	1914-1918

Nurturing Nurses

Fill in the gaps using the words in the box.

Mary Seacole

Mary Seacole was a famous nurse. She was born in _____ in 1805. Her father was _____ and her mother was Jamaican.

Mary wanted to help treat the soldiers injured in the _____ War. The British Government wouldn't let her go so she paid for herself to go.

She set up the 'British Hotel' for soldiers to receive treatment, food and drink. Mary died in _____.

1881	Scottish	Jamaica	Crimean

Fill in the gaps using the words in the box.

Edith Cavell

Edith Cavell was a British nurse. She was born in _____ in 1865.

Edith was asked to be in charge of a nursing school in Belgium in 1907. During the First World War, she nursed _____ soldiers from both sides.

Edith was _____ for treason because she hid 200 Allied soldiers from the _____.

Germans	Norfolk	arrested	injured

Complete these sentences. Use the words in the box to help you.

This is a _____ .

It has a picture of _____ on it.

It is a bravery award given to_____ .

nurses	Royal Red Cross medal
	Florence Nightingale

Nurturing Nurses - Answers

Match these words to their meaning.

Crimean War	an act against your country (helping the enemy)
treason	name given to Britain, France and Russia during the First World War
Allies	fighting between Russia on one side and Britain, France, Turkey and Sardinia on the other

Match the people to their picture.

Florence Nightingale

Mary Seacole

Edith Cavell

Write true or false.

Florence Nightingale is famous for changing the way hospitals were run. __true__

Florence Nightingale was born in Italy. __true__

Florence Nightingale nursed soldiers in the First World War. __false__

Florence Nightingale was known as 'The Lady with the Lamp'. __true__

Match the war to the correct dates.

| First World War | 1853-1856 |
| Crimean War | 1914-1918 |

Nurturing Nurses - Answers

Fill in the gaps using the words in the box.

Mary Seacole

Mary Seacole was a famous nurse. She was born in ___Scottish___ in 1805. Her father was ___Scottish___ and her mother was Jamaican.

Mary wanted to help treat the soldiers injured in the ___Crimean___ War. The British Government wouldn't let her go so she paid for herself to go.

She set up the 'British Hotel' for soldiers to receive treatment, food and drink. Mary died in ___1881___.

1881	Scottish	Jamaica	Crimean

Fill in the gaps using the words in the box.

Edith Cavell

Edith Cavell was a British nurse. She was born in ___Norfolk___ in 1865.

Edith was asked to be in charge of a nursing school in Belgium in 1907. During the First World War, she nursed ___injured___ soldiers from both sides.

Edith was ___arrested___ for treason because she hid 200 Allied soldiers from the ___Germans___.

Germans	Norfolk	arrested	injured

Complete these sentences. Use the words in the box to help you.

This is a ___Royal Red Cross medal___.

It has a picture of ___Florence Nightingale___ on it.

It is a bravery award given to ___nurses___.

nurses   Royal Red Cross medal
Florence Nightingale